

WONK DEPOSED IN EIGHT-ROUND GO

Memphis Flyweight Has Margin on New Orleans in S. A. C. Show—Prelims Offer Fast Milling.

BY BOB FIGUE.
Young Jack Dempsey, local flyweight, outpointed Kid Kelly, of New Orleans, in eight rounds at the Southern Athletic club Monday night. Referee Billy Mack's verdict was a draw, but the crowd received the decision himself owing to his aggressiveness, for Billy had a big job on his hands during the two boys' fight, as Kelly clinched and held at every opportunity, marring what otherwise would have been one of the best bouts of the year.

TOO MUCH CLINCHING.

The bout was marred by clinching and semi-clinching on the part of Kelly who early in the mill discovered he could not stand the pace with Dempsey and exchange punches. In the opening round Kelly was hit by a blow on the nose and after the first round Kelly spent the major portion of the time clinching and holding. Kelly proved the better fighter and the points he earned were by way of body punishment he inflicted at close range. Young Dempsey fought out the fight with a better margin than a wide margin. But Kelly, whose sole asset was the ability to deal out punishment in the clinches, made the most of it, and gave Dempsey a body severe pasting.

Dempsey landed the majority of clean blows, several times knocking the New Orleans fighter to the canvas, but with no return. Kelly landed but few clean blows, one of which was a left to the body in the second round that stung Dempsey. When Dempsey did his shinning dance and tore into Kelly, the New Orleans fighter was bewildered, and was obliged to go into a clinch. Kelly was hissed and booed throughout the fight for his tactics in clinching, but he explained after the mill that he was used to fighting with one arm free. Kelly was an aggressive young fighter, always boring in and coming back, forcing the mill in the way in every round. Dempsey showed up on several occasions by hard rights, but Kelly kept coming.

BURGESS SCORES KAYO.

Battling Burgess, a debutante at the S. A. C., lowered the curtain for Kid Kelly, who was an aggressive young fighter, and a second of milling. Burgess had Styles on the floor in the first round, but Kelly was able to get up, but was again sent down by a fourth round knockout. Burgess was the victor in the fight, as it was clear that Styles didn't have a chance.

IN THE SEMI-FINAL HAMBONE MURPHY AND CYCLOPE TAYLOR MAILED EACH OTHER.

In the semi-final Hambone Murphy and Cyclope Taylor mailed each other in the first round of the night. In one of the greatest slugfests ever seen at the club, Hambone dropped Styles in the third round, but the Cyclone returned the compliment by flattening Hambone in the fifth. Hambone only went to his knees and was up in an instant, while Cyclope took the count of nine.

HAAS DRAINED AS TWO BOYS' MITTS IN TOOK OF A HOLIST.

Haas, who was a draw, as they were on even terms at the finish.

KID BEVO, THE NONTOXICATING CHAMPION, PROVED THAT HE HAD A KICK WHEN HE WENT TO HIS KNEES AND WAS UP IN AN INSTANT.

Haas, who was a draw, as they were on even terms at the finish.

BATTLING ARTHUR WAS THE SURVIVOR OF A BATTLE ROYAL. A PACKED HOUSE WITNESSED THE SHOW.

It was announced that Kid Roy, of Memphis, and Young Joe Gans, of New Orleans, would meet in a battle royal on Monday's show at the S. A. C. in an eight-round bout for the negro lightweight championship of the world, now held by Gans.

THERE WILL BE THREE OTHER FIGHTS ON THE SAME CARD.
